Notice of Intention to Provide Assistance

Pursuant to Section 24(1) of the Community Charter of the Community Charter, the City of Richmond (the City) hereby gives notice that the City intends to provide assistance to Kwantlen Polytechnic University (KPU).

The City and KPU will enter into a licence agreement to allow KPU to manage and operate an organic agricultural teaching and research farm for the purposes of extension education, applied research, and providing short-term opportunities for new farmers to actively farm in an applied, cooperative and supportive manner. The agreement will have a five-year term and will expire on or about December 31, 2029. KPU will base its operations at its main campus at 12666 72 Avenue, Surrey, British Columbia.

The City's assistance includes certain benefits at reduced cost, including use of up to 5.85 acres of land at the South Dyke Agricultural Lands located at 13871 No. 3 Road and 13891 No. 3 Road. The value of assistance is estimated at $6,789.86 per year for each year of the term.

Any inquiries concerning the proposed assistance may be addressed to:
