Are you eligible to vote?

You may vote as a resident elector if you:

- are a Canadian citizen
- are at least 18 years old on General Voting Day (Saturday, October 17, 2026)
- are a resident of Richmond
- have lived in British Columbia for at least six months before registering to vote
- are not disqualified from voting by law

Non-Resident Property Elector

If you own property in Richmond, but do not live in the city, you may be eligible to vote in the 2026 Richmond Election. Visit richmond.ca/elections to find out more information.

When and where can you vote?

There are three ways you can vote:

1. General Voting Day

General Voting Day is on Saturday, October 17, 2026 from 8:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. Voting divisions will be used on General Voting Day, which means that you must vote at your designated neighbourhood voting place for your division. If you're a non-resident property elector voting on October 17, you must vote at the designated neighbourhood voting place for the division in which your property is located. Registered voters will receive a voter card in the mail that will indicate your designated voting place for October 17.

A voter card is not necessary to vote. If you did not receive a voter card, you may find out where to vote at richmond.ca/elections, download the Richmond Election app (available on Apple and Android devices), or contact the Richmond Elections Office.

Please come to your voting place prepared. Bring your voter card if you received one, as well as two pieces of ID. One piece must include your signature.

The voting places for General Voting Day are:
