

Scavenger Hunts

Explore two NEW urban scavenger hunts while you Walk–Talk–Discover–Learn in Richmond Parks and Trails with your family and friends.

- Walking refreshes the mind, reduces fatigue and increases energy
- Talking with others as you walk can be more motivating than walking alone
- Discovering things about your community and loved ones provides a connection
- Learning along the way helps pass the time and makes exercising more enjoyable

Answers: 1) 244-1247, 2) yellow, 3) 44, 4) Olympic rings, 5) 28, 6) they evoke the spirit of the area's fishing culture, 7) rowing and dragon boating

Middle Fraser Arm Trail

Located on the North Dyke, beginning at Lynas Lane and River Road.

- 1 What number do you call to adopt a park in Richmond? Continue East along the dyke
- 2 What colour is the buoy in the water?
- 3 How many pyramid posts support the railing on the walk ramp going up to the No.2 Road bridge?
- 4 What is the symbol on the West side of the Richmond Oval?
- 5 How many wooden poles are supporting the overhangs on the North side of the Oval (facing the water)?
- 6 What do the two elevated large net sculptures known as ephemeral lanterns, shown on the East side of the Oval, represent?
- 7 What 2 programs are advertised on the white sign attached to the gate opening to the UBC Boathouse?