National Volunteer Week | April 27-May 3

Thank you to all Richmond volunteers!

In celebration of this annual event, we recognize the invaluable contributions of community volunteers who have helped make Richmond a wonderful place to work and play. We extend our heartfelt thanks to each volunteer for dedicating their time, expertise and passion to fostering a connected and vibrant community. From library services to sports and recreation programs, the arts, neighbourhood crime prevention and special events, there are countless opportunities to get involved and give back.

Child Care Month

Supporting Richmond Families

May is Child Care Month in BC and the City of Richmond. There are two ways to celebrate locally:

Caring for Richmond's Caregivers: A Symposium for Early Childhood Educators, Child Care Providers and Parents.

This event takes place on Saturday, May 3, from 8:00am to 12:30pm at Richmond City Hall.

This symposium qualifies for 3.5 hours of professional development with certificates issued upon completion. Register here.

Children's Art Exhibition

The Richmond Child Care Development Advisory Committee and Richmond Public Library are collaborating to host a Children's Art Exhibition for licensed child care programs at the Brighthouse Library from May 2 to 30.

For more information and to apply, email ChildCare@richmond.ca.
