Employment Connections links youth to supports

We're partnering with the Richmond Public Library and Richmond's Employment Resource Network to host Employment Connections: Programs and Supports for Youth Jobseekers for youth aged 15–24.

This free, drop-in event takes place Wed, Mar 4 from 2:30–5:00pm at Brighthouse Library (7700 Minoru Gate). Community and government organizations will offer help with job searching, gaining work or volunteer experience, mental health support, financial literacy resources and training programs. There will also be hands-on sessions such as mock interviews and live resume reviews.

Truck parking pilot supports local industry

We are launching a one-year Commercial Truck Parking Pilot Program to support the local trucking industry and improve the flow of goods across the region. The pilot provides approximately 65 on-street commercial truck parking spaces in the Fraserwood, Ironwood, Mitchell Island and Vulcan Way industrial areas. Parking will be permitted overnight from 7:00pm to 7:00am.
