Join Richmond's election team

Richmond's General Local and School Election is coming up this fall to elect one Mayor, eight Councillors and seven School Board Trustees.

The Richmond Elections Office is hiring more than 650 election workers to support Advance Voting dates and General Voting Day (Sat, Oct 17). If you're looking for a meaningful way to serve your community, a variety of paid positions are available, including Presiding Election Official, Alternate Presiding Election Official, Election Official and Machine Attendant.
