

Black History Month Exhibition

February 20 - March 26

Don't miss this collaboration between sound designer, poet and musician Todd Simmons and musician and multimedia artist Omar David Rivero. Obeah For the Un... is a new single-channel video work composed of layered readings and shifting visuals that create a meditative space where resilience, identity and collective experience resonate as echoes in both sound and light. Designed to envelop audiences, the work invites viewers into a cycle of reflection that is haunting, immersive and deeply human.

Located at the Upper Rotunda Gallery, Richmond Cultural Centre, 7700 Minoru Gate.

Volunteer Spotlight

Lenon Tamaru (Richmond Nature Park and Culture Days)

Lenon has been volunteering for two years and has found that it's been an opportunity to participate and contribute in events and activities that he would not have the chance to be part of. He also gets to explore and discover new interests and hobbies, and finds it a deeply rewarding experience to find something that makes a positive impact on the community.

Thank you, Lenon!
