

The Home Photo Inventory Record

The purpose of a photographic inventory is to ensure that you are adequately compensated for any loss. Proper documentation will also speed up your claim through the insurance process.

Creating a Photographic Inventory

- Take a photo of every room, including the garage and storage shed.
- Take a photo of the exterior of your home (including landscaping).
- Take a new picture each time you renovate.
- Take individual photos of specific items, ie. TV, DVD, appliances, china cabinets and contents, clothes closets etc.
- Take photos of the contents of your fridge and freezer.
- Take close up pictures of antiques, artwork, collectables etc.
- Get an appraisal for jewellery, furs, antiques and get additional coverage if necessary.
- Take a picture of your garage's contents.
- Record make, model and serial numbers.
- List the titles of your CD's, DVD's, videos and computer games.
- Print duplicate copies and store one set off-site.
- Keep major purchase receipts with inventory list.
- Keep inventory list current.
- Please print off additional sheets if required.

Engrave your possessions with your BC Drivers Licence #.
