

GREEN ROOF

Installing a living roof can reduce the temperature of the roof surface and surrounding air, help with storm water runoff, and can provide habitat for birds and insects.

Low-maintenance options suitable for green roofs include sedums, succulents, herbaceous perennials and herbs.

GARDENING IN A CHANGING CLIMATE